University of the Sciences in Philadelphia does not discriminate in admission, employment, or administration of its programs on the basis of gender, age, disability, race, religion, creed, national origin, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity or in violation of federal, state, and local laws or executive orders. The University complies with the requirements of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania College and University Security Information Act and the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998. A statistical report in accordance with these acts is available upon request. A copy of the University annual security report, which includes required statistical data and University policy concerning campus security, is available on the website—usciences.edu/publicsafety—or by contacting the University's Department of Public Safety and Security.

In compliance with Title I Section 103 of the Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act, as amended by the Higher Education Technical Amendments of 1991, the persistence rate for first-time degree-seeking adults is available from the Office Institutional Research.
